Emanate Health Welcomes Lisa Fuerst to Board of Directors

Appointment Underscores Shared Commitment to Community, Leadership, and Excellence in Health Care

COVINA, Calif. — Success Education Colleges (SEC) is proud to announce that Lisa Fuerst, Vice President of SEC, has been appointed to the Board of Directors of Emanate Health, the leading nonprofit health care system serving the San Gabriel Valley in Southern California.

Emanate Health—which includes Inter-Community Hospital, Queen of the Valley Hospital, Foothill Presbyterian Hospital, and more than 16 primary and specialty care centers—provides compassionate, high-quality care to over one million residents across the region. Its mission to help people stay well in body, mind, and spirit closely aligns with Lisa's leadership philosophy and SEC's commitment to transforming lives through education.

"This opportunity is both an honor and a tremendous responsibility," said Lisa Fuerst. "At SEC, we empower students to create brighter futures through career education. At Emanate Health, the mission is to care for people with dignity and compassion. Both are about investing in people and uplifting communities—and I am grateful to contribute to this important work."

As Vice President of SEC, Lisa continues to support the College's mission to prepare students for careers in health care—building a pipeline of skilled, compassionate professionals who directly support health systems like Emanate Health.

"Lisa's appointment reflects her unwavering commitment to leadership and service," said Mitchell Fuerst, President of Success Education Colleges. "Her voice on the Emanate Health Board will help strengthen the connection between education and health care, ensuring brighter futures for both students and patients alike."

With a century of service to the San Gabriel Valley, Emanate Health continues to expand and modernize its facilities while upholding a tradition of patient-centered care. Lisa's appointment to the Board underscores its focus on engaging experienced, community-minded leaders to guide its future.
